

Publication of the Executive Summary – National ML/TF/PF Risk Assessment (NRA) 2024/25

The Financial Intelligence Unit (FIU) has published the Executive Summary of Sri Lanka's National Risk Assessment (NRA) 2024/25.

The NRA represents a comprehensive assessment of the country's Money Laundering (ML), Terrorist Financing (TF), and Proliferation Financing (PF) risks. It has been developed through an extensive and collaborative process involving a wide range of public and private sector stakeholders.

The Executive Summary can be accessed at the following link:

👉 Sri Lanka NRA on ML/TF/PF – 2024/25

All Competent Authorities, Law Enforcement Agencies, Regulatory Authorities, reporting Institutions and other stakeholders are encouraged to review the findings of the NRA and to effectively utilize the outcomes when strengthening your respective risk-based Anti-money Laundering, Countering the Financing of Terrorism and Proliferation Financing frameworks, including institutional risk assessments and mitigation measures.